Proposed Grade Eight Social Studies Standards

Please find below the proposed standards for the grade eight social studies. With the addition of a middle school civics course that was proposed to take place in the second semester of the grade six year, it was determined that some grade six geography standards could be moved to grade seven and eight social studies to alleviate the number of standards in grade six social studies. Geography standards highlighted in green were identified as grade six standards that could be moved to grade eight social studies. All other standards remain the same from the previous edition.

History
Standard 1: Students examine the relationship and significance of themes, concepts, and movements in the development of United States history, including the review of key ideas related to the colonization of America and the revolution and Founding Era. This will be followed by emphasis on social reform, national development and westward expansion, and the Civil War and Reconstruction period.
Historical Knowledge - American Revolution and Founding of the United States: 1754 to 1801
